

NLCC Men's Ministries would like to invite you and your daughter to join us for our annual Father/Daughter Campout. This is a great opportunity to share some quality time with your daughters away from the busyness of life. Men and daughter(s) of all ages are welcome to attend. The weekend offers a wide variety of activities to cater to your interests, some of which may include:

- amazing boat rides and tubing
- exhilarating hike to Teapot Mountain
- exciting waterfront activities

The primary focus of the weekend is to bond with your daughter and other people at the retreat. Most importantly, come hear God's Word delivered daily through our guest speaker.

Sweltzer Creek Campground

SEPTEMBER 6-8

SO, WHAT CAN I EXPECT?

The Father/Daughter Campout is held at Sweltzer Creek Campground located south of Chilliwack, British Columbia. The campout begins Friday evening with most people arriving between 5:00 pm and 8:00 pm. Activities end Sunday morning with people leaving the campground before 11:00 am.

CAMPSITE

The campsite is nestled between its namesake, the Sweltzer Creek and the Chilliwack River. This beautiful and natural hideaway that is sheltered by large, old Cedar Trees. The Sweltzer Creek flows through the campground, providing creekside camping sites.

During the day on Saturday, there will be:

- activities scheduled on the water at Cultus Lake
- hike up Teapot Mountain to enjoy a breathtaking view from Teapot Mountain
- a picnic lunch on the beach at Cultus Lake while enjoying time with your daughter and other campers.
